Survival in the Wilderness is a fascinating topic for older campers; they truly love it! At this one-day family camp at Lancaster County Park's Pavilion #11, join Naturalist Lisa Sanchez and IU13 staff to explore several important things needed to stay alive in a survival situation. Together, we will explore safe options for food, water, shelter, and creating fire. As part of a family team, you will have the opportunity to build a shelter and start a fire. You will also gather food and water from a variety of locations in the woods and learn if they would be safe to eat in a survival situation. You will also practice the vital skills of teamwork, problem solving, and collaboration which are always great for family dynamics! Please dress for the weather and wear sturdy shoes. Arrive ready to meet new people, work effectively to face challenges as they are presented, and have a great day of active outdoor fun!

NOTE: Dress for outdoor exploration, including a creek study. Water shoes or old sneakers will be required in the creek. To ensure a safe experience for all, we will remain outdoors throughout the day. Registrants will receive an email with more information.
