IU13 FAST FACTS

Lebanon Community Education at Chestnut Street Community Center

IU13 Community Education programs in Lebanon County moved from classrooms in various locations to a new centralized location in Lebanon City this month -- the Chestnut Street Community Center.

The new facility is conveniently located downtown and began offering classes on January 8th. In-person classes provided at this location include English as a Second Language (at various levels) as well as High School Equivalency programming. This is a great partnership opportunity that will benefit many adults and the community at large throughout the Lebanon County region.
