Calling all aspiring artists and creators! In this enrichment experience, you will spend the day learning about graphic design and mixed media with Jason and Kate Horst; artists and owners of Horst Arts in Manheim, PA. You will begin the day by studying the basics of graphic design through practical examples and interactive exercises. During the second half of the day, you will learn how the same graphic design elements apply to the world of fine art. Through play and observation, you will create mini projects and end with a final mixed media piece that you'll be proud to hang in your room! Come join us for a day filled with hands-on activities, learning, creative expression, and fun! Space is limited so register today!

What to Bring/Wear:

- Lunch, drink, and filled water bottle. IU13 will provide a light snack.
- Room might be chilly due to AC - a sweater/sweatshirt is recommended.
