Welcome to our one-day summer enrichment experience, where young journalists will dive into the exciting world of news gathering and broadcasting! Working with Marquis Lupton, an On-Air Host/Producer for WITF, you will embark on a hands-on journey, learning the fundamentals of journalism, interviewing techniques, and the art of storytelling. You will have the opportunity to explore various news sources, analyze current events, and develop critical thinking skills while honing your ability to distinguish fact from fiction. In our state-of-the-art green screen studio, you will experience the thrill of being on camera, practicing your presentation skills and delivering news reports on topics of your choice. With guidance from experienced journalists, you'll gain insight into the importance of objectivity, integrity, and accuracy in reporting. By the end of the day, you will emerge with newfound confidence, ready to embark on your own journalistic adventures and make a positive impact in your communities. Space is limited so register today!

What to Bring/Wear:

- Lunch, drink, and filled water bottle. IU13 will provide a light snack.
- Room might be chilly due to AC - a sweater/sweatshirt is recommended.
