Lancaster and Lebanon Transition Network Meetings (TC: Transition Council)

Transition Council (TC) is a network of parents, consumers, educators, and community service providers helping students with special needs in their transition from school to adult life. Meetings will: inform parents of available transition supports from the school and the community; establish a communication link from school to family to community services; identify community issues and suggest possible resolutions; and work toward achieving successful student transitions from school to adult life. Meetings include guest speakers and open conversation between parents, educators, and agency representatives to exchange ideas.

Act 48 in Pennsylvania is a competency-based program whereby professional educators may earn credits to maintain active certification. Participants can only receive credit for the actual time involved in the offering. No credit can be given when direct instruction is not taking place (i.e., breaks, lunch, dinner, etc.). Furthermore, Act 48 (24 P.S. §12-1205.2(c)) requires that continuing professional education programs, activities or learning experiences be - related to an area of the professional educator's assignment or certification. * Individuals not seeking Act 48 credits may disregard.
